ST. NICHOLAS HOTEL Broadway, New York. W' HEN completed six years ago the St. Nichelas was universally pronounced the most magnificent, convenient and thoroughly o ganized establishment of the kind on this continent, what it was then it remains to-day—without a rivel in size, in sumptuousness, and in the general elements of comfort and enjoyment. The Hotel has accommodations for 1000 guests, including 100 complete suites of apartments for families. Six hundred persons cas be comfortably seated at the tables of its three public during rooms, and nothing that modern art has lic dining rooms, and nothing that modern art has devised for the convenience and social gratification of the traveling public has been omitted in its plan.
